At KTNV-Channel 13 Action News we are committed to making Las Vegas a better place for locals and their families. We strive to solve the everyday problems that can make life in Las Vegas frustrating.

Action News tackles problems that government and big business ignore. We ask the tough questions and hold those in authority accountable.

Attached are the community based stories covered by KTNV-Channel 13 for 1Q13 reflecting (5) significant issues that Southern Nevadans are affected by the most; Health and Welfare / Environment, Economic Development, Politics, Education and Public Safety.

Our community involvement extended far beyond covering these issues in our newscasts this 1Q13. Along with covering these stories that matter to the Southern Nevada community, Journal Broadcast Group's On-Air Talent and Behind-the-Scenes staff addressed our community's needs by participating in local events that were areas of concern for them.

NEVADA SCHOOLS COULD SOON BE SUBJECT TO SOME NEW FEDERAL GUIDELINES ON HOW THEY CHOOSE PLAYERS FOR ATHLETIC TEAMS. THE CHANGE INVOLVES STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES. the government is forcing SCHOOLS TO GIVE DISABLED ATHLETES A FAIR SHOT AT MAKING A TEAM.. OR even CREATE NEW LEAGUES FOR THEM. SCHOOLS WILL ALSO HAVE TO GIVE ATHLETES SOME HELP.. LIKE PROVIDING A FLASHING LIGHT THAT GOES OFF AT THE SAME TIME AS THE STARTER'S PISTOL.. SO A DEAF STUDENT CAN RUN TRACK. SOME TAXPAYERS ARE CONCERNED.. HOWEVER.. THAT NEW LEAGUES MIGHT BE EXPENSIVE. ADVOCATES AGREE.. AND SAY THE TURNING POINT INVOLVED TATYANA MCFADDEN. SHE COMPETED IN THE PARALYMPICS IN ATHENS BUT HAD TO FILE A LAWSUIT TO WIN A SPOT ON HER HIGH SCHOOL TEAM. THE CASE ULTIMATELY GOT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT INTERESTED IN CHANGING THE GUIDELINES FOR ALL SCHOOLS.

What's often innocent fun can turn deadly if you're not careful. Parents visiting mt. Charleston with their kids today were acutely aware of Tuesday's tragic sledding accident that left an 11 year-old Las Vegas girl dead. "i kinda took it as ... i was a little skeptical at coming down here today but i knew that the kids had been looking forward to it since christmas so i just figured we'd take extra precautions and let them still have a little fun." henry mitchell, parent "and we try to sleigh board with him so he's not by himself. and make sure we're in an area where there are not a lot of trees. a lot of open space for room for error." ralph divirgilio, parent Good tips to avoid shortening a day of fun...experts even suggest parents consider getting their kids helmets... something already offered for free during the month of january at the ski and snowboard resort through the lids for kids program. "i think it's smart to wear a helmet in any type of outdoor activity. whether its sledding, skiing snowboarding snowmobiling. all of those activities come with a risk." kevin, ski & snowboard resort And experts say while certain spots may look fun because they're crowded... They're not always the best or safest. "there's more fatalities on an annual basis in sledding than there is in skiing or snowboarding. it is dangerous depending on where you're at." kevin, ski & snowboard resort standup tag: he also adds that you might consider getting your kids ski and snowboard lessons, because they're in a much more controlled environment. reporting from mount charleston jessica janner channel 13 action news.

LYN WILLIAMS HAS BEEN TRYING TO CALL THE WELFARE OFFICE FOR OVER A WEEK. 14:33 I spent 33 years in IT. I can read between the lines. I know this system is not working. WILLIAMS RELIES ON FOOD STAMPS WHILE SHE LOOKS FOR WORK. BUT SHE HAS A PROBLEM WITH HER ACCOUNT. SHE WAS ABLE TO CALL AND SPEAK WITH SOMEONE THE FIRST WEEK OF THE MONTH. EVER SINCE, SHE HASN'T GOTTEN PAST THE AUTOMATED PHONE SYSTEM. Lyn Williams/Food Stamp Recipient 15:35 You can do better than this. You have a responsibility for the people you are "servicing." Whatever it takes, they need to do something to take care of the people in need. OTHERS HAVE TURNED TO ACTION NEWS WITH SIMILAR ISSUES. WE STARTED INVESTIGATING COMPLAINTS ABOUT BUSY SIGNALS AND LONG HOLD TIMES ABOUT SIX MONTHS AGO. OUR INVESTIGATION REVEALED THE PHONE SYSTEM IS UP TO 10-YEARS-OLD.. AND STRUGGLES TO HANDLE UP TO 4-MILLION CALLS A YEAR.. INCLUDING THOSE FROM JOYCE SMITH. Joyce Smith//FILE PKG 00:28 Having the phone to your ear for hours is a killer. It means I can't do anything else. I've got to be there with that phone. (STAND UP) 25:57 Some people who can't get through on the phone end up here at the welfare office. At times, we've seen the line out the door. But the phone problem may get fixed, if the Governor gets his way. (NATS FROM STATE OF THE STATE) 28:49 You and I know we must continue to address the unemployment in our state. AS PART OF THE UPCOMING BUDGET... GOVERNOR BRIAN SANDOVAL IS RECOMMENDING MORE THAN 2-MILLION-DOLLARS TO REVAMP THE AGING PHONE SYSTEM. THE WELFARE OFFICE SAYS IT'S WANTED THE MONEY FOR YEARS. Miki Allard/Division of Welfare and Supportive Services/Phoner 45:45 Everything has been tight over the last several years due to the economic recession. STILL... LYN SAYS SHE CAN'T WAIT FOR LAWMAKERS TO ACT. 18:20 We're talking six months, a year down the line. In the meantime, what are you going to do to service the people who are in need? (STAND UP CLOSE)

THE UPGRADE IS NOT A DONE DEAL. NEVADA LAWMAKERS MUST FIRST APPROVE THE FUNDING. IF THEY DO, WE'RE TOLD PURCHASING AND INSTALLING A NEW PHONE SYSTEM COULD TAKE UP TO A YEAR. MICHAEL LOPARDI, CHANNEL 13 ACTION NEWS.

FOR THOUSANDS OF FAMILIES IN LAS VEGAS... WELFARE IS A MEANS TO SURVIVE. 05:54:48 It's a way to feed my kids, and the medical I need for my kids, so my kids don't get sick, and if they do, I can get them the medication they need. CARMEN MEDLEY... IS ALL FOR THE STATE REQUIRING DRUG TESTING... TO GET THAT HELP. 05:54:06ish Too many people take advantage of the system. And those who need it cant get it. SHE SAYS SHE MEETS PEOPLE ON A REGULAR BASIS... AT THE NEVADA WELFARE OFFICE... WHO SHOULDN'T QUALIFY 05:55:10 I've heard people can come up with money for drugs every day, but they can't feed themselves, they can't pay their rent. I'm not understanding the balancing act. AND SHE'S NOT ALONE. MANY PEOPLE GOING THROUGH TOUGH TIMES - AND LOOKING FOR WORK AT NEVADA JOB CONNECT... AGREE. 05:51:24 The fact that I have to actually provide a drug test when getting a job, I think it's only right that as far as welfare goes, that they are provided a test. 05:49:27 I don't want my tax money going to pay for someone else's drug habit. REPUBLICAN STATE SENATOR JAMES SETTELMAYER ... INTRODUCED THE BILL THAT WOULD DENY PUBLIC ASSISTANCE IF A DRUG TEST IS FAILED... OR TREATMENT REFUSED. IF THAT BILL PASSES... OFFICIALS SAY AMERICAN BUSINESSES LOSE CLOSE TO 250 BILLION DOLLARS TO COUNTERFEITERS. AND THIS AFFECTS OUR LOCAL ECONOMY...THAT'S WHY FEDERAL AND LOCAL POLICE ARE CRACKING DOWN ON THESE CRIMINALS. FRIDAY IN LAS VEGAS...FEDERAL AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES SHOWED OFF LOOT COMING FROM A MASSIVE BUST OF COUNTERFIT SPORTS GEAR. MICHAEL STEVENSON, HOMELAND SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS 11:18:34-11:18:40 "It's got poor stitching, poor quality, crooked, it's obviously totally counterfeit." THIS ALL COMES FROM TWO VENDOR'S ACCUSED OF SELLING KNOCKOFF GOODS FOR SEVERAL MONTHS AT KIOSKS LOCATED UNDER THE FREMONT STREET EXPERIENCE. EVEN FORTY-NINER'S GEAR...ONE OF THE TEAMS HEADED TO THE SUPERBOWL. MICHAEL STEVENSON, HOMELAND SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS 11:15:18-11:15:30 "Everything in the kiosk was basically counterfeit. He had a screen press where he would basically download stuff off the internet and make his own screen, Greenbay Packers, NCAA, whatever the case may be."

THIS IS JUST A SMALL PART OF OPERATION RED ZONE...A NATION WIDE CRACK DOWN ON COUNTERFEIT SPORTS MERCHANDISE AND APPAREL. SOMETIMES THE PRICE CAN GIVE AWAY THE FAKES... MICHAEL STEVENSON, HOMELAND SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS 11:17:31-11:17:41 "Genuine NFL jerseys, $100-$200, and they were selling these for $39. If you wanted whatever logos, you went up to $49, $59." SOMETIMES IT'S MUCH HARDER. JEREMY BROWN, ULTIMATE SPORTS CARDS AND MEMORABILIA 11:32:20-11:32:33 "The quality of jerseys on the counterfeits are getting so much better, that you can put a fake one next to a real one, and it can be challenging to tell the real one from the fake one at times." BUT EXPERTS SAY THERE IS A WAY TO MAKE SURE YOU GET THE REAL DEAL. JEREMY BROWN, ULTIMATE SPORTS CARDS AND MEMORABILIA 11:33:22-11:33:33 "Because there's too many bad things out there unfortunately, too many unsavory individuals. So that's why we always stress the importance, buy from a reputable source so you know exactly what you're getting into, and then you don't have to worry if it's authentic or not." (TAG) FEDERAL AUTHORITIES SAY THIS BUST BROUGHT IN KNOCKOFFS WITH A STREET VALUE OF ABOUT 15 THOUSAND DOLLARS. WE SPOKE WITH AN EXECUTIVE WITH THE FREMONT STREET EXPERIENCE AND THEY TELL US THEY HAVE A POLICY TO NOT SELL COUNTERFEIT GOODS...AND DID NOT KNOW THESE VENDORS WERE SELLING KNOCH OFFS. An elected lawmaker should be able to walk with his head held high.. not stooped below a hoodie.. as in this photo of Steven Brooks.. provided by the Las Vegas Review Journal. Neighbors are stunned. ?The behavior that you've seen described in news media reports. Is this something that's unusual? Or are you not suprised? It's unusual. Brooks made a quick trip to Carson City Wednesday.. but he skipped scheduled budget talks.. and for many of his colleagues that was probably ok. "Statements allegedly made by Mr. Brooks that raised a concern that he may be a threat to Ms. Kirkpatrick and myself." By phone... Assemblyman William Horne told Action News.... lawmakers are taking Brooks alleged threats to kill Assembly leader Marilyn Kirkpatrick very seriously. Heightened security at the legislature.. Heightened fear in his neighborhood.. where North Las Vegas police found Brooks with a gun Saturday.. and arrested him. TRACK: No answer at his wife's home Wednesday night.. And no answers for neighbors. ?If these allegations are proven true.. do you think he should be allowed to serve in the legislature? I don't know enough about politics to make judgement in that area.. I think anybody could lose their mind at times and do crazy stuff like that. Maybe he needs counseling.

4:59 Jim: Just one little school. /nat pop kids/ 300 children. /another nat pop/ Small community. D: And plenty of waste? Jim: Plenty. CUSTODIAN JIM NELSON HAS A MESSAGE FOR TAXPAYERS AND PARENTS OF CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT STUDENTS. 3:59 Jim: Watch your wallet. THAT'S BECAUSE OF WHAT HE SAYS HE WAS ORDERED TO THROW IN THE GARBAGE THIS SUMMER. :24 Jim: ... throwing away brand new books that were never used. NELSON WAS TRANSFERRED AWAY FROM SANDY VALLEY IN SEPTEMBER AFTER SIX YEARS AT THE SCHOOL. HE'S NOW A CUSTODIAN AT SIERRA VISTA HIGH SCHOOL HERE IN TOWN. AND, LIKE OTHER CCSD WHISTLEBLOWERS WE'VE TALKED TO, HE CLAIMS THE TRANSFER WAS RETALIATION AFTER HE EXPOSED WASTE AND OTHER HEALTH AND SAFETY CONCERNS. 13:04 Jim: I'm driving 110 miles a day round-trip. With the price of fuel it's $60-70 a week. It hits me in the wallet on that one. HIS CASE IS UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE NEVADA EQUAL RIGHTS COMMISSION. THE DAY OF THE DUMPING, HE TOOK THESE PHOTOS... :50 Math, science, other things. INCLUDING A CLOSE-UP SHOWING WHAT TYPE OF BOOKS WERE IN ONE OF THE BOXES. 1:23 Jim: And there was at least three loads of this caliber thrown away. HE ESTIMATED ABOUT 36 BOXES OF BOOKS IN ALL. 6:06 Jim: They should have been utilized! They were brand new, never opened! 6:34 No excuse! It's wasteful. AS YOU CAN SEE BY THE BOX LABEL, THESE BOOKS DATE BACK TO 2007. :41 D: Let's talk textbooks. Principal Jerry Cornell: Ok. PRINCIPAL JERRY CORNELL HAS ONLY BEEN AT SANDY VALLEY SCHOOL FOR TWO YEARS, BUT THE BOOKS WERE TOSSED ON HIS WATCH. 1:21 They weren't textbooks, they were workbooks. D: And is that every single one of those approximately 36 boxes? JC: Oh no, no, no, no. HE'S ONLY SURE OF WHAT WAS IN THIS BOX, BECAUSE WE SHOWED HIM JIM NELSON'S PHOTO OF THE LABEL. 40:10 Darcy stand-up: That particular box of workbooks came with these math textbooks, which cost about $40-50 each. EVEN SO, CORNELL SAYS THERE'S NO USE FOR THE WORKBOOKS. 6:56 D: (off cam) So if you're a conscientious administrator and you know you're getting books that you're not gonna use... JC: I wouldn't get them. Would not. Wouldn't bring them on campus. CORNELL SAYS EVERY SCHOOL HE'S WORKED AT AS AN ADMINISTRATOR FOR THE LAST 13 YEARS HAS STOCKPILES OF MATH WORKBOOKS. 2:08 And they don't fit in our--in the program--in the curriculum that we're teaching today. D: And they didn't in 2008 or 9 or 10 or 11? JC: No. 2007 is I think when we got those. APPARENTLY NOT ALL MATH WORKBOOKS ARE UNUSABLE. WE FOUND ONE STICKING OUT OF A STUDENT'S BACKPACK... OBVIOUSLY IN USE. CORNELL SAYS IF THERE WERE TEXTBOOKS IN THE BOXES THAT WERE TRASHED, THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN OUTDATED. 4:02 JC: Um, you know, schools are hoarders. Educators are hoarders. And we tend to keep things that we have just in case we might need it someday. HE ADMITS SOME STUFF YOU PAY FOR JUST NEVER GETS USED. 10:36 JC: Every school I've been at, I've stumbled across storerooms with things that people just forgot were there. Darcy stand-up with video in monitor: Like this room at the District's Academy for Individualized Studies high school. As Contact 13 exposed last May, there were hundreds of brand new books in a room--in boxes and wardrobe cabinets--that were outdated, never used, and forgotten when the school moved to a new campus. 11:32 D: Do you think that anyone anywhere in this district can afford to let that happen? 11:39 JC: I don't think anyone does it on purpose. It's the nature of education. BUT IT'S SOMETHING HE SAYS HE STRIVES TO CHANGE. 10:21 Darcy: What do you think when you see, when you find boxes of stuff dated 2007 or 8? JC: Makes me crazy. JIM NELSON SAYS PAPER AND BOOKS WEREN'T THE ONLY THINGS LAID TO WASTE AT SANDY VALLEY SCHOOL. 4:29 Jim: We had bookshelves and file cabinets and wardrobes sitting outside in the elements being rained on, sandstorms through them. WE SAW THAT WHEN TOURING THE SCHOOL WITH PRINCIPAL CORNELL. 27:35 D: Are you worried at all that they're starting to rust? JC: No. Because we'll go through and we'll clean them up. CORNELL ADMITS THERE ISN'T ENOUGH SPACE HERE TO STORE STUFF. THEY KEEP EXTRA DESKS AND CHAIRS IN THE GYM, WHICH ITSELF IS A TENT. HIS CAMPUS HAS TABLES REPURPOSED FROM ONE LAS VEGAS HIGH SCHOOL, AND FOOTBALL SCOREBOARDS FROM ANOTHER. BUT AS FOR WASTE IN THE SCHOOL DISTRICT? 12:05 D: Do you think it's an unavoidable situation? JC: Yes. Yes. Darcy tag: We want to know what you think. Is waste in a school district our size unavoidable? Or should they be doing more to curb it? Send us an e-mail at 13investigates@ktnv.com and let us know how you feel. Darcy Spears, channel 13 action news.

On February 8th at 0725 am multiple 911 calls were received for a fire in a house at 5765 East Lake Mead Blvd. The address is near Linn Lane and Bonnie Lane. 7 units and 20 personnel responded to the call. Clark County Firefighters arrived to find heavy smoke and fire showing from a vacant house. An aggressive interior fire attack was performed and the fire was knocked down within 6 minutes of the first call being received. The structure is very old, is known to have been occupied by the homeless in the past, and there was nobody in the structure on arrival of fire crews. Fire Crews have responded to this vacant house for fires 3 times over the last several months. Fire Investigators were unable to determine the source of the fire this morning due to extensive interior fire damage from previous fires; however evidence suggested it was likely started by a warming fire or smoking material. Clark County has issued a notice of abatement to the property owners and the building department has been asked to assess the structural stability and safety of this particular structure. It is possible that property owners may be required to demolish it in the near future. Today's incident was ultimately handled with one Engine Company, there were no injuries to firefighters or civilians. Since the economic downturn, the Fire Department has responded to more fires in homes that are vacant. CCFD statistics show there was an increase in fires in vacant homes from 18 in 2007 to 26 in 2011. (In 2008, there were 26; 2009, 25; 2010, 24; In 2012 there was a total of 31.) Vacant does not necessarily mean abandoned or foreclosed upon. For CCFD, these numbers represent the number of fires in homes that we were certain did not have anyone living in them at that time of the incident. In many of these cases, the fires were started by people who entered the home illegally. Information from neighbors, witnesses, or evidence at the scene may tell us that the house had been occupied by homeless who had illegally obtained access to the home. Homeless people may start a fire somewhere in the home, possibly to keep warm, and then are unable to contain the fire they started, or did not extinguish the fire entirely before they left. Fires in vacant homes can be especially dangerous because often no one calls 9-1-1 about the fire until it has grown to be fairly significant. This means that usually the home involved is badly damaged, and there is an increased risk of the fire spreading to nearby homes. We ask the public to be vigilant and to call police if they suspect someone is illegally inside or occupying a vacant home.
